

Vasiliki Roussi

Vasiliki Roussi studied dance, singing and acting at the Theatrical School an der Wien, where she began her career in the musical Cats. She later worked as an actress at the Royal Theater in Switzerland where she performed, amongst others, the roles of Angelique in Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid," Hero in "Much Ado About Nothing," Abigail in "The Crucible," and Irina in "Three Sisters." Ms Roussi has worked with Austrian director Xaver Schwarzenberger and she has appeared in many television series and movies. In the area of music Vasiliki Roussi has performed in Germany, Austria and Switzerland many great women's roles such as Anita in "West Side Story," Sally Bowles in "Cabaret," Lucy in "Doctor Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," and Charity in "Sweet Charity," to name a few. Since 2012 she has been bringing to life the role of Edith Piaf in a work by P. Holzwarth at the Lübeck Theater and in another work of the same name as the title character by P. Gems in Stuttgart, where she won the audience award for best actress, 2016. The summer of 2017 she appeared at the Festival Schlossfestspielen Biedenkopf where she performed the leading role in the musical Die Hatzfeldt. In Heidelberg during the summer of 2018 she played the role of Zeitel in Fiddler On The Roof. In 2019 she will sing songs by Kurt Weill with the Weimar State Orchestra and in the summer of 2019 between other appearances she will perform concerts featuring the songs of E. Piaf and Z. Bell in collaboration with the State Orchestra of Gera.